SINGAPORE, 25 March 2025 – Resorts World Sentosa (RWS, 圣淘沙名胜世界) will debut WEAVE (微福 wēi fú), the region’s latest premier lifestyle cluster, in the second half of 2025. Formerly known as The Forum, the new development will be home to Asia-exclusive flagship stores and novel experiences. This latest milestone is part of the resort’s ambitious transformation strategy.

WEAVE will introduce iconic concept stores, new culinary destinations, and an immersive lifestyle experience – all housed within an architectural masterpiece designed to interweave nature, art and entertainment.

The name WEAVE is reminiscent of a weave pattern within its architecture, reflecting the interlacing of cosmopolitan energy, multi-sensorial adventures and nature's inspiration into one harmonious experience. Set amidst a lush tropical backdrop at the heart of the resort, WEAVE organically merges the outdoor and the indoor environments, blurring conventional boundaries to create an indulgent and experiential shopping, dining, and rejuvenation sanctuary.

Spanning over 20,000 sqm – twice the size of the former Forum at RWS – the new lifestyle destination will offer an expansive collection of over 40 lifestyle and premium brands across three interconnected levels.

"WEAVE marks a significant milestone in our RWS 2.0 transformation as we redefine premium and lifestyle experiences in one seamless environment. More than a retail space, WEAVE is a dynamic social hub connecting guests across the resort and attractions to create an immersive journey from day to night," said Mr Tan Hee Teck, Chief Executive Officer of RWS (陈启德, 圣淘沙名胜世界行政总裁).

"WEAVE embodies our vision of a next-generation lifestyle destination — one where the boundaries between retail, entertainment, and dining blend, allowing guests to move effortlessly between curated experiences. This is indulgence redefined — inviting, unexpected, and always evolving to offer fresh discoveries with every visit."

Unveiling a tapestry of global flavours and experiences

WEAVE will introduce an eclectic mix of world-renowned brands and new-to-Singapore culinary concepts, including the highly anticipated arrival of a Singapore flagship patisserie by Pierre Hermé. Known as the "Picasso of Pastry," Pierre Hermé will unveil Maison Pierre Hermé Paris, an immersive two-level boutique at RWS that will transport visitors into the world of haute pâtisserie. The boutique will offer a meticulously curated selection of the chef's signature creations, as well as exclusives specially crafted for Singapore.

Guests can look forward to indulging in Pierre Hermé's emblematic desserts, such as the iconic Ispahan, a delicate fusion of rose, raspberry, and lychee, as well as the Tarte Infiniment Vanille and the Macaron Mogador, a delightful blend of milk chocolate and passion fruit. The boutique will also feature an Ice Cream Bar with over fifteen flavours of ice cream and sorbet, along with a curated selection of iced brioches, bubble tea, and artisanal coffee.

For those seeking personalisation, the boutique will offer a customisation service, allowing guests to compose their own gourmet assortments and explore the art of furoshiki packaging, combining Parisian elegance with Singapore's vibrant energy.

"Singapore is a leading gastronomic destination, where high standards and refinement resonate with the world of Maison Pierre Hermé Paris. We have chosen WEAVE at Resorts World Sentosa to make our Singapore debut with our flagship Maison as it is part of our desire to offer enthusiasts a unique experience where audacity and savoir-faire take on an incredible dimension. This unique boutique is an invitation to celebrate the art of taste, flavours, sensations, and pleasure," said Chef Pierre Hermé.

Joining the stellar lineup is WeWa, a vibrant Middle Eastern street food concept. Unveiling its flagship location at WEAVE, WeWa celebrates fresh, authentic Mediterranean flavours with pillow-soft pitas, hand-pressed falafels, and slow-roasted shawarmas — all prepared in an open-kitchen for an interactive, immersive experience. Their flavour-packed menu offers a variety of options at pocket-friendly prices.

Michelin-starred chef Paul Pairet will also debut two brand-new dining concepts, an ice cream parlour serving freshly churned soft-serve and sorbets with avant-garde flavour pairings, as well as a French kitchen dishing out classic French flavours with a contemporary twist. The restaurant features grilled meats and a rotating carvery station. Guests can also look forward to seasonal French classics such as quiches, stews and charcuterie boards.

Peking Chamber, one of the most popular Peking duck brands in mainland China is set to open its first Singapore outlet at WEAVE. The Michelin recommended restaurant is known for its authentic flavours and high-quality ingredients, offering a refined, yet affordable dining experience.

WEAVE will also welcome the first Standard Bread store, a famed Korean bakery known for its signature salted butter bread. Making its Singapore debut, the artisanal bakery serves fresh bread, jams and spreads, toasts, puddings and soups within a cosy rustic setting.

Adding to the excitement is Singapore's historic dining icon Chatterbox, which will serve its famed plate of Mandarin Chicken Rice and other local favourites in a modern yet nostalgic setting. All-time favourite brewed tea chain CHAGEE will introduce a tea-drinking experience steeped in tradition.

Casual and family-friendly options are also in store, with new food stalls that will celebrate the region's vibrant street food culture, featuring favourites such as Laksa, Char Kway Teow and Mie Bakso. The stalls offer halal and vegetarian food options too.

Reimagining urban Singapore through island-inspired design

WEAVE, designed by award-winning architectural firm Benoy, pays homage to the island's tropical beauty by integrating biophilic design elements with multi-sensory experiences. Harmonised botanical landscaping creates a seamless flow between spaces, offering guests an immersive experience as they explore the resort.

Mirroring that of a tranquil garden oasis, Singapore's premium lifestyle cluster will feature lush indoor landscapes. This fusion of nature and creativity evokes the essence of a tropical getaway while inspiring exploration and enriching the resort's island charm from day to night.

As RWS continues its multi-year transformation, guests can look forward to a wave of new world-class attractions, immersive experiences, and lifestyle offerings. WEAVE is set to elevate the resort's position
