PRAGMA

Pragma is the leading commercial advisor for investors and operators.

Working internationally across Europe, the Middle East, Asia and America, Pragma offers a truly integrated service for an entire asset life cycle, from insight and analytics, through to strategy, planning, digital, and commercial due diligence.

The company has extensive expertise in:

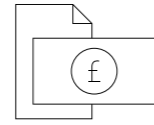

Commercial intelligence

Analysing performance to identify value, boosting greater social and environmental benefits.

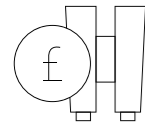

Space planning and revenue forecasting

Optimising space to meet stakeholder needs, optimising uses, formats and business models.

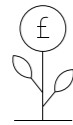

Operating and leasing

Assessing tenants to determine opportunity and attracting more valuable and sustainable occupiers.

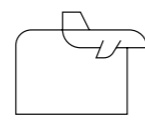

Commercial strategy and vision

Analysing performance to identify value, generating meaningful and valuable experiences and propositions.

Investment advisory and due diligence

Evaluating investments to unlock growth, creating greater revenue and engagement from consumers.

Airports and travel hubs

Responding and adapting to change.

Pragma is a specialist consulting firm, working as a strategic partner for operators and investors in mixed-use, travel and retail property.

The team create commercial strategies and advice for decision makers based on insightful analytics, robust modelling, global experience, and new thinking.
